FEAR A FREEZE-OUT

THE LONG DRY FALL MAY PRESAGE WHEAT FAILURE.

Probability That the Acreage Sown to Wheat Will Be Smaller Than Last Year Because of the Protracted Dry Weather — Between 200,000 and 400,000 Bushels of the Last Crop Are Yet in the Farmers' Hands, Many Holding for 75 Cents.

Umatilla county farmers are alarmed over the prospect of a freeze out of fall-sown grain. It has been the history of this section of the country that a long dry fall is an evil omen to the farmers, and generally foretells poor crops.

The acreage next year will be smaller than it was last season, for the reason that a large number of farmers have put off seeding with the hope that the weather would change. The result has been that the fall is past and winter is here with the ground still vacant.

It is estimated that between 200,000 and 400,000 bushels of last season's crop remains in the hands of the Umatilla county farmers. The price is nominally 75 cents a bushel. Those who are holding their grain are in a position to keep it. A majority are holding for 75 cents, that they feel sure will be offered before spring. In case it becomes necessary to reseed, the price will materially advance, as the farmers who have disposed of their wheat will be obliged to purchase seed.

Inland Empire farmers depend largely upon their fall-sown grain to produce the abundant crops, and very few seed in the winter, or in the spring. Years of wheat growing have proved that spring wheat is not as good in yielding qualities, or for fancy milling purposes as fall grain.

MINES WILL OPEN.

Sale of the Cornucopia Group Is Thought to End Wearisome Litigation.

George Lindgreen, the Baker county mining man now confined in St. Anthony's hospital, and who is largely interested in mines at Cornucopia, Baker county, is of the opinion that the sale of the Cornucopia group yesterday, will settle a long standing difficulty among the members of the company and will enable the purchasers to open up the mine next spring.

H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil company, was one of the large stockholders, John F. Searies, of Chicago, another and neither of these men objected to the sale, seeming willing to close the matter and let local capitalists interested in the claims, take them and end the difficulty. The group was bid in by Colonel W. F. Butcher, representing Baker county capitalists, for $38,516.60. The personal property of the company sold recently for $2500.

The claims are said to be the richest in Eastern Oregon, but the camp is handicapped by lack of transportation facilities.

BAZAAR OPENS TOMORROW.

Presbyterian Women Have Everything in Readiness for the Event at Armory Hall.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, the Presbyterian bazaar will open in all its splendor, at Armory hall. The various booths are being prepared with the utmost skill, and many pretty and unique features will be presented. The Umatilla braves will be seen in full dress. The Japanese boys will sing a Japanese song in their native tongue. Mrs. Goey has promised to preside at the tea kettle, and sprightly senoritas will serve tamales.

An embarrassment of useful and beautiful articles will be on sale at the handkerchief, domestic, Dutch, candy, and other principal booths. A musical entertainment will be provided each evening, and the event will be made as pleasant as possible for the patrons.

The bazaar will open promptly at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon and will continue through Thursday and Friday afternoon and evenings.

EXCURSION TOMORROW.

Third Train Will Be Run From Walla Walla to This City and Return.

The third excursion train from Walla Walla to this city and return, will be run tomorrow.

Five trains are scheduled for the month of December as follows: Thursday, December 1; Thursday, December 8; Thursday, December 15; Tuesday, December 20, and Friday, December 23.

The success of the two former trains has induced the business men of Pendleton to make the experiment of a weekly train for the next month, at least, in hopes that the O. R. & N. Co. will find it of sufficient public importance to make it a regular semi-weekly train, or possibly a daily train, from Dayton to Pendleton and return, as suggested by Mayor Hunt of Walla Walla.

ARTISANS' MEETING.

Supreme Instructor of the Order Will Meet With the Lodges Tomorrow Night.

A joint meeting of both Harmony and Alpha assemblies of the order of Artisans will be held tomorrow night at I. O. O. F. hall, for the purpose of greeting Dr. G. C. Eshelman, supreme instructor of the order, who is in the city on an official visit.

All members of both assemblies are especially requested to be present at the meeting, as business of importance will be transacted.

Dr. Eshelman is a resident of Portland, and is on an official tour of the state. He finds the Artisans in a flourishing condition, and gaining in strength, constantly. The two assemblies in Pendleton are in a healthy and prosperous condition, and hold regular meetings.

SHEEP ARE DOING WELL.

Range Is Now in Excellent Condition All Over Umatilla County.

"My sheep are actually gaining in flesh on the range," said A. H. Sunderman, to the East Oregonian today.

"If it does not snow there will be sufficient good grass to last most of the Umatilla county flocks until spring. The foothill ranges are better than usual and the rains will bring them out still better. All sheep are in good condition and while hay is plentiful it does not now look as if it would all be used this year."

Mr. Sunderman has just purchased 1800 head of yearlings and has them on his range near Echo.

Filipino Would Come Back.

Antonio Salazar, the Filipino young man, who came to Walla Walla five years ago when Company I returned from the Philippine Islands, and who recently returned to Manila, has written a letter to a former member of the company in Walla Walla. He says that he is now employed in the quartermaster's department, but he is not satisfied and may come back to the United States. Regarding the salary he received "Tony" said: "I will not tell you how much money I get each month, as it is too much. I would like to have you come over and help me spend it. When it gets any smaller I will tell you know."—Walla Walla Statesman.

No Space Allotted.

A letter from the Lewis and Clark fair commission says that no floor space has yet been definitely allotted to any county, although all but six of the counties have already applied for space. The state commission has not yet decided how much space will be used by the state and county exhibits, and therefore cannot allot any space until this is decided upon. The agricultural pavilion comprises 95,000 feet of floor space and counties will be assigned space when it is learned how much will be wanted by the state.

Debate May Be Postponed.

Owing to the rush of work in preparing the next number of the Hakkawinn by the high school students, it is possible that the debate scheduled for tomorrow night may be postponed. As assembly hall is occupied by school rooms, it is not possible to use it for meeting purposes and the debates of the high school society will be held in the high school room, and on account of the lack of accommodations will not be public. It is hoped to be able to use Assembly hall for meeting purposes before long.

OTHER ESCAPADES

FRANK WELLS HAS TURNED THE SAME TRICK BEFORE.

Claimed That He Defrauded Creditors in California and Afterward Decamped—An Effort Will Now Be Made to Locate Him, as the People Are Losing Sympathy With Him—He Was Probably Afraid of Recognition by Former Neighbors.

It is now alleged that Frank Wells, recent sudden departure from Umatilla county, in which he left numerous creditors in the Ukiah country, is not his first escapade of this kind.

It is said by people who knew Wells in California that he absconded from that state, leaving numerous friends, among them, Superior Judge A. Hewell, of Stanislaus, to mourn his departure.

When Wells was described to a recent arrival from California who was well acquainted with a Frank Wells, at Oakland, in that state, he immediately identified Wells as the man who had duped his friends and later disappeared leaving several hundred dollars in unpaid bills and borrowed money.

Absolutely no trace of the man has been found and it is now said that he willfully planned to abscond and defraud the few people to whom he was indebted.

Every effort will be made to locate
